

Maintenance instruction

The hand-woven article should be washed by hand, using a commercial washing-powder suitable for the care of wool. The buttons (ceramic or wood) shall be removed beforehand, in order that any damage to them is avoided. After wringing out, the hand-woven article shall be hotly steam-ironed on both sides and then placed to dry on a washing-rack. After drying, iron again if necessary and sew on the buttons.